Relevant work experience and how it relates to Toastmasters and your role as a District leader:

Forty Two (42) years of Technical Experience in Electronics & Telecommunication. Further, more than a decade (12 years) as Director Technical & Special Projects in Educational Areas for Engineering & Architecture Institutions.

What experience do you have in strategic planning?

Almost twenty five years (25) experience in Corporate Planning, Strategic Planning & Development and Execution at Corporate levels.

What experience do you have in the area of finance?

My current position demands a thorough knowledge of Financial Planning, Budgeting & Financial Management. I have sufficient experience in this area.

What experience do you have in developing procedures?

My entire Corporate Experience of 3 decades entails formation of systems, Procedures and the opportunities for Entrepreneurship.

What lessons did you learn from previous leadership positions?

Toastmasters is a great movement & gives excellent learnings. All leadership positions gave me a rich experience. Some of the important learnings were to identify leaders & groom them into future leaders to support the Toastmasters Functions, that being dynamic in nature. These lessons will remain always in Toastmasters.

Why do you want to serve as a District leader?

An Opportunity to contribute to the District which is newly formed, to bring in value to toastmasters in the District.

In your opinion, what are the District mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them?

To build new Clubs & enable all Clubs to achieve excellence. This is very important for the District & Toastmasters to take a place of pride in the community. I would strive to create value to every toastmaster for their time in this movement as these values can attract more to become members and yet remain with the movement for long.

Additional information about yourself:

My experience would be valuable for Toastmasters & the District to add values & quality to all those in it and to those who enter.
